NATIONAL RECONCILIATION WEEK 2022

27 MAY TO 3 JUNE

The National Reconciliation Week 2022 theme, “Be Brave. Make Change.” is a challenge to all Australians— individuals, families, communities, organisations and government—to Be Brave and tackle the unfinished business of reconciliation so we can Make Change for the benefit of all Australians.

Last year Reconciliation Australia encouraged all Australians to take action; not just in National Reconciliation Week but every week of the year.

We saw unprecedented response to our suggested actions for everyday and for braver action.

This year we are asking everyone to make change beginning with brave actions in their daily lives – where they live, work, play and socialise.

National Reconciliation Week—27 May to 3 June—is a time for all Australians to learn about our shared histories, cultures, and achievements, and to explore how each of us can contribute to achieving reconciliation in Australia.

Find out more about National Reconciliation Week #NRW2022 #BeBraveMakeChange

<https://nrw.reconciliation.org.au>

‘We have our eye on the same destination – a sustainable future where Indigenous people are recognised for their wisdom and honoured for their culture – there is no problem taking a different path to reach that place.’

Kirstie Parker – Board Member, Reconciliation Australia.

Acknowledgement of the Land

As we gather to pray for reconciliation, may we remember that 27 May and 3 June are important dates in Australia’s history. 27 May marks the anniversary of the 1967 referendum when Australians voted to remove clauses in the Australian Constitution that discriminated against Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples. 3 June marks the historic 1992 Mabo Case in which the High Court of Australia recognised the native title rights of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples. This decision acknowledges that their rights over their lands did survive British colonisation. And so we acknowledge that we gather today on the land of the First Peoples, and pay our respects to their Elders both past and present, for they hold the memories, the culture and the wisdom upon which our nation’s future will be built.
